Rights

No attribution required

You are not required to attribute or link to Material Design for Bootstrap in any projects.

Right to personal use

The License grants you, the purchaser, an ongoing, non-exclusive, worldwide license to make use of the Product in personal projects, in accordance with the EULA.

Right to commercial use

The License grants you, the purchaser, an ongoing, non-exclusive, worldwide license to make use of the Product in commercial projects, in accordance with the EULA.

Right to modification

You may modify the resources according to your requirements.

Right to create the End Product

You may use the Product to create End Products in accordance with the EULA. The End Product is a custom implementation of the Product requiring an application of skill and effort (f.e. a website built with MDB Template with customized, modified content is an End Product because it requires skill and effort while a website which is literally copy-pasted MDB Template isn't).

Lifetime usage

You are entitled to use the purchased Product for life.

Maintenance & bonus features

Maintenance & bonus features are covered by monthly or annual subscription. As long as the subscription is active you have access to all maintenance and bonus features. The user has a right to cancel the subscription without losing the right to use the Pro package itself.

User limits

User limit for a license is specified on the checkout during the purchase. License holder (an owner of mdbootstrap account to which the license is assigned) has a right to allow usage for additional users in accordance with developer number specified in the order.

Unlimited projects

The License grants you, the purchaser, an ongoing, non-exclusive right to create unlimited End Products for yourself or for multiple clients.

Restrictions

Unauthorised redistribution

You cannot redistribute, resell, lease, license, sub-license or offer the Product directly or non-directly to any other third party, without an explicit agreement with StartupFlow s.c.. Learn more about the Reseller Terms.

Product usage by end-user

You cannot permit an end user of the End Product to use the Product separately from the End Product. (f.e. Your client can use the website X that you've built for him, but he cannot build another website Y himself using the files installed for the website X.

Open source

You cannot redistribute any of the software, or products created with MDB software to repositories like Github, where they are publicly available or included into any Open Source projects.

Competition

You cannot use the Product to create any End Products that would compete with the Product itself. (f.e. you cannot use MDB 5 Pro to create a framework, library, design system, CMS, template, plugin or a page generator).

Maintenance & Bonus features terms:
